Surplus estate with HEC, Jharkhand

2969. MISS MABEL REBELLO: Will the Minister of HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Heavy Engineering Corporation of Jharkhand has vast real estate and its maintenance is very poor, if so, the reasons therefor;

(b) the reasons for not giving back that land to the tribals from whom they have taken this land;

(c) the reasons for HEC not able to procure huge orders and do financially well; and

(d) what restraints HEC has to procure huge orders and execute and make profit with the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF HEAVY INDUSTRY, MINISTRY OF HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES (SHRIMATI KANTI SINGH): (a) Company was provided 7199 acres of land for establishment of factory premises and township. Company has been able to maintain its township and factory premises.

(b) Land for establishing the company was acquired by State Government and the company had paid the due sum to State Government, which in turn was paid to the owners of the land. The revival package in respect of the Company, approved by the Government, envisages transfer of commensurate land to Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) for settlement of their dues and to the State Government of Jharkhand for settlement of outstanding dues of Jharkhand State Electricity Board (JSEB) etc.

(c) HEC was primarily set up to manufacture machinery for the steel industry from where the expected orders did not flow in the 80s and 90s. However, presently the company has orders worth Rs. 709 crores in hand.

(d) Due to market competition, obsolete technology and working capital shortage, HEC has had difficulty in procuring large orders. With assistance from Government and proposed revival package the order position is improving.
